

Connecticut Journalism Hall of Fame

The Connecticut Chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists established the Hall of Fame in 1997. Inductees are listed with brief bios on the chapter's website: <http://connecticutspj.org/connecticut-journalism-hall-of-fame/>

To nominate someone write a 1-page letter indicating why you think this individual should be considered. All nominations must include the form below.

A committee appointed from the CT SPJ Board of Directors judges the nominees and chooses those to be honored.

Rules: Those chosen to the Hall of Fame must have made a "significant, enduring contribution to journalism in Connecticut."

They may be active, retired or dead. Please nominate individuals you think deserve this honor. No self-nominations are permitted.
